MAP OF THE HUMAN HEART — review quotes :

An amazing and brilliantly filmed journey into realistic surrealism.

A love story of most unusual dimensions.

A movie you have to see, if you value the best that modern, creative, intelligent cinema has to offer.

A highly dramatic blend of the fires of Dresden the ice of northern Canada, the heat of passion and the freeze of jealousy and racism . . . not to mention the compassion and cruelty of religions.

A 10 on the Franklin-scale (out of 10).
